

Be A Sister Challenge

Troop Level Incentives:

Troops who complete five of the activities below by October 31, 2021 will earn the Be a Sister patch for each girl in the troop (patches will be mailed to the Troop Leader). The troop will also be placed in a drawing for:

- Free attendance at Encampment (includes site fee and girl fees), with priority session selection, OR
- A party for the troop with food and Girl Scout activities.

1. Check your troop's meeting details in the participation catalog. Ensure there are open spots (if possible) and that the meeting details are correct.
2. Host a Girl Scout table during events at schools connected to your troop.
3. Contact 2-3 friends and invite them to become Girl Scout volunteers—sign at least one up.
4. Host a “bring a friend” event in September or October. Invite local girls to attend and join your troop – sign at least two up.
5. Share the Be a Sister social media posts with families in your troop. Ask them to share it within their network.
6. Work with your council to distribute flyers in your local community. Generic flyers can be found here, and you can contact customercare@girlscoutsalaska.org for more personalized flyers.
7. Host a Girl Scout table at a family-focused event in your community.
8. Identify three skills you've gained by being a Girl Scout volunteer, and share those via your social media channels, encouraging others to get involved as volunteers.
9. See if you can get your troop announced at a local sporting event, school announcement, or faith community service. Invite others to join.
10. Help your Girl Scouts write a brief note describing why they love Girl Scouts and share it via social media with your network.
11. Wear your Girl Scout uniforms to school and pass out invitations to other girls to join Girl Scouts.

BONUS: Troops can also earn Fill Your Troop incentives during the month of September. Find more information here.

Submit the online form by October 31, 2021 to indicate which activities your troop completed for the challenge.